

TRAINING SYSTEMS

Presents... The 5-5-5 Webinar for student activities advisors interested in developing student leaders. In this complimentary, live, 30-minute seminar presented by Alan E. Nelson, EdD, young leader development expert and author of LeadYoung, you'll learn 5 ways to identify more student leaders in your school, 5 common ways educators thwart young leader development without realizing it, and 5 ideas for creating a more leader friendly campus.

In addition to this executive briefing, you'll receive published articles on this topic along with a hard copy of the new 238-page book, LeadYoung, the first concentrated leadership book written specifically for teens.* Dr. Nelson is a columnist on the topic of leadership development for Student Leadership Activities, published by the National Assoc. of Secondary School Principals (NASSP).

Bio: Alan E. Nelson, EdD has a doctorate in leadership from the University of San Diego, is a lecturer of management at the Naval Postgraduate School, and is considered a global expert in young leader development. He is also the founder of KidLead, a non-profit org that trains people how to use young leader development curriculum, for ages 10-18.

The 5-5-5 Webinar is for full time, part time, and volunteer advisors of student governments, club presidents, and other teen-led programs. Sign up for this unique briefing based on training research for 10-18 year olds the last six years. Each webinar is limited to 15 per time slot, in order to allow for individualized Q&A at the end of the webinar. To find the times and register, go to www.leadyoung.org, click on The 5-5-5 Webinar link and fill out the form. Take advantage of this continuing education, professional growth opportunity at absolutely no risk. Tell your colleagues about this event!

*Limited to 1 book per school, available for those who attend the entire 30-minute webinar that includes a 5-minute introduction of LeadWell training curriculum for teens.