

KidLead Koach Agreement

Literally 1000s of hours have been invested into the design and creation of this unique and effective leadership training curriculum. Your certified, KidLead Trainer has signed his/her version of this agreement, but we need you as a Koach to sign yours, recognizing your responsibility in using this material. This is important in order to maintain the integrity and credibility of this young leader training program. Although we realize that all Certified Trainers are independent and that many Koaches volunteer their time to young leader development, we still want to provide cultivate a professional attitude toward our work and effort.

Please sign and give this agreement to your KidLead Trainer. If you have any questions, feel free to talk to them as well.

1. I agree to attend Koach training and complete the required preparation.
2. I have not been arrested for any sort of child abuse or sexual crime against a minor.
3. I agree to have a background check run on me by the Trainer, which is required for KidLead Trainers. This must be done for new Koaches who've not had one done on them by the current host organization and must be renewed within 3 years.
4. I understand that KidLead materials are copyrighted and agree not to use these or allow others to do so, outside of a KidLead training program.
5. I agree to comply with the attitude and spirit of the KidLead training culture and will support and encourage the Certified Trainer, so long as I am active as a Koach.
